“ In Loving Memory of Basil "Nicky"

I remember Nicky as a man who brought warmth and camaraderie to those around him. My own connection with Nicky began when I started at AAMC in 2003, where I also met Russell. Finding Nicky there was a true comfort; as a fellow Trinidadian, sharing that heritage in the workplace was an instant, refreshing bond that made the demanding environment feel a little more like home.

Nicky and Russell were inseparable—a true pairing. Their constant presence together was a familiar and welcome sight to all who worked with them. The shock of Russell’s earlier passing is compounded by this profound loss of Nicky. We can barely recall a time when they weren’t together, and the absence of both leaves a deep void.

Nicky’s kind spirit and Trinidadian charm will be deeply missed. We hold onto the cherished memories we made and the shared laughter we enjoyed.

May he rest in eternal peace.

Forever in our hearts. 🇳🇮
