

Doris Brown

December 2, 1956 - March 19, 2026

Doris Jean Brown-Mason passed away peacefully on March 19, 2026, at MedStar Washington Hospital.

She was born on December 2, 1956, in Haymarket, Virginia, to Willie and Willie Mae Harris. The youngest of ten children, Doris attended Stonewall High School in Prince William County.

Doris was a free-spirited soul with a love for fashion and self-expression. She married young and welcomed her only son, Darnell Sprow, in 1975. Later, she remarried and was blessed with two daughters, Dormaine and Danielle Brown, in the 1980s. Yearning for a fresh start, Doris moved to Washington, D.C., with her daughters, where she met and married her beloved husband, Darnell Mason. Together, they shared 25 beautiful years of love, laughter, and companionship until his passing in 2016. Doris found joy in singing with her husband, dancing, and shopping. She was known for her signature, long nails, impeccable style, and vibrant personality. No matter the circumstances, Doris had a gift for bringing light, joy, and laughter to those around her.

She is now reunited with her beloved husband, Darnell Mason; her son, Darnell Sprow; her parents; her brothers, Willie, Lorenzo, Raymond, Terry, and James Harris; and her sister, Rosa Mae Griffin.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory her loving daughters, Dormaine and Danielle

Brown; her daughter-in-law, Melissa Judkins; her son-in-law, Nelson Borjas; her grandsons, Darnell, Dorian, Devon, and Demetrius Brown; her granddaughter, Delilah

Brown; her cherished fur grandsons, Fenty and Lenny; her sister, Edna Harris; her brothers, Charles and Bobby Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends who will forever carry her joy and light in their hearts.

A viewing service will be held at Berean Baptist Church on Saturday, April 4, 2026, from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m., located at 924 Madison Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20011.

“With style, grace, and a light that could never be dimmed, Doris lived her life out loud—bringing joy, laughter, and love wherever she went. Her sparkle will forever live on in all who knew and loved her
