A TIME TO WORK

Ellsworth White, CPA, ACP has held numerous job titles within the Accounting Sector of the Federal Government. He served 32 years within the Federal Government. He dedicated numerous years to the FDIC. The last position Ellsworth held he started in 2003 where he served in the Administrative Office of the United States Court, ending as the Supervisory Accountant in the Finance & Accounting Division/Accounts Payable Section.

A TIME TO LOVE

Ellsworth was a loving, supportive, and phenomenal dad, to his one and only Daughter, Britney, whom he affectionately referred to as ‘Sport’ and his best friend. Not only was he a great Dad, he was also a loving big brother, uncle and friend to all. To have known Ellsworth, was to have loved him.

A TIME TO LIVE

Ellsworth was an avid bike rider, jogger, hand dancer, reader, historian, investor, CPA and adviser. In Ellsworth’s free time, you may have caught him cycling or jogging down Central Avenue, hand dancing at the Chateau, visiting Museums in whatever state he visited or just out and about enjoying the scenery. Wherever there was a good time to be had, rest assured, Ellsworth was there, living the life he was destined to live. Although Ellsworth loved all these things, nothing exceeded the love he had for his family.

A TIME TO REST

On Sunday, April 17, after a month long battle from a bike riding fall, Ellsworth was called home. Surrounded by his loving daughter, Britney, siblings and other close family and friends.

Ellsworth leaves to cherish with his memories, his beloved daughter Britney Lee (Veronica). Sisters, Alma White and Angela White. One brother Anthony White. Nieces, Niya McKie (Sean), LaToria Jackson (Craig), Tatiana White. Great nieces and nephews, Clifton, Sean II, Caylyn and Cayla. Aunts, Gladys Kennedy, Delores Gayden (Reginald), Sherman White (Wylene). And a host of other family members and dear friends.

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you

But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Your loving daughter Britney

“ My heart is so broken with the untimely passing of my treasured and forever friend and brother. An exemplary, highly accomplished man, and yet always so humble with one of the biggest hearts of caring ever. He was forever "Neighbor" to me as we were just across the hall from each other in our first ventures into "after Howard University" undergrad life. As time went on, watching him as an outstanding father to his adoring daughter-my beloved goddaughter-was a joy, and he continued to be a doting uncle to his adoring nieces as well. A man of strength, integrity, dignity, fortitude, and all wrapped in graciousness. Rest in the Heavenly garden my cherished brother. All my Love, Arnita

“ Hello, my name is Jason Hempstead. I've worked next to Ellsworth at the Administrative Office of the US Courts for the past few years. In that short time, I've learned 5 things mattered to Ellsworth most, or at least that's what he mostly talked about, his love for his daughter, his love of history, his lottery tickets, good weather to ride his bicycle, and letting us know that he could retire at any time. Ellsworth had a glowing characteristic about himself (I'm not talking about the shine on top of his head), I'm referring to the smile he always wore. He was an expert in his craft, and a great friend to us all. He was someone who I could comfy with, he was a natural mentor. I respected Ellsworth and viewed him as a father figure; in fact, that may be why I was drawn to his personality, because he reminded me so much of my dad. I would always ask him, "are you sure you're not a Kappa?" He always replied, "I was just me at Howard, they tried to recruit me, but I felt they needed me more than I needed them". I always felt, I hope I could maintain my health like Ellsworth does, because I knew he would be around for years to come. He took care of himself, he ate healthy, and worked out consistently. He will be missed personally and professionally.
