“Gee as we called her was the most loving and caring aunt anyone could want. She was the glue that kept our families in touch over several generations. We will miss her presence, but her memories will last forever with our family and friends. Dallas and Shirley Smith, Peachtree City, Georgia.

Aunt Gee was my great aunt but more like a grandmother. She was there for every event in my life from school events to my graduations fro undergrad and lawsuit. She made me clothes growing up and enjoyed Sunday dinners at her house after church where she prepared delicious meals and great conversations about current events. As an adult, she became my friend. I will miss her caring and nurturing personality and our many talks. She will truly be missed. Rest in peace my beautiful aunt!!!!
