“ My beloved was a great man, he was a protector, provider to his family. George loved life, in recent months he made his confession every time he went to church 🏛️. My husband will be missed! I have no regards of the life I lived with him. I loved my husband until the end.

I have no regrets with life with my husband. He was a loving caring husband, father, family and friends. He was very devoted to making everyone satisfied even when he spend holidays feeding everyone before he enjoyed his family. Others were home enjoying gifts and special meals while he aided others. A GOD fearing heart!
