“ I remember when I was a little girl you drove around in a blue two seater. You created laughter and excitement and it was the highlight of our day. You were the big brother we all loved. When I last saw you in Miami, you said I had lost too much weight and you wanted me to come over so you can cook me fried chicken. Today on your birthday🎂 I eat fried chicken in your honor. Love Dominique 💕💕

“ As you journey into outerspace, may the angels help to lead the way, may the prayers that our families made, shine up on your soul to keep you safe, and all the family that passed away are there to greet you as you pass the gates, and as you head to the tunnel's light, I hope it leads to eternal life.
