

WILLIAM CLEMMON
DICKENS Jr.

June 17, 1961 - November 28, 2024

SUNRISE: JUNE 17, 1961 - SUNSET: NOVEMBER 28, 2024

FAMILY WILL RECEIVE GUEST

DECEMBER 19, 2024

10:00AM VIEWING - 11:00AM CELEBRATION OF LIFE

THE TEMPLE OF PRAISE

700 SOUTHERN AVENUE SE

WASHINGTON, DC 20032

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 19. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

The Temple of Praise
700 SOUTHERN AVENUE SE
Washington , DC 20032

Service

DEC 19. 11:00 AM (ET)

The Temple of Praise
700 SOUTHERN AVENUE SE
Washington , DC 20032

Tribute Wall

WR

“ We were William neighbors for over 20 years. William and my husband Ronald Russell went to Jr High school together. We were saddened to hear about his passing. We pray for the family that God will heal your hearts and give you strength. Condolences Mr.&Mrs Ronald Russell

Wendy Russell - December 21, 2024 at 07:32 PM

LC

“ My memories of my genuine friend "Junebug" will always make me smile. Junebug was always smiling and would greet me with a hug. I never saw him upset. So kind and fly! My heart is heavy with grief and disbelief! I will cherish all the good memories and laughs. God knew best and decided to bring his Saint home. My prayers are with the Dickens family. Rest in Heavenly Peace Junebug! 🙏🙏

Linda Chesley - December 19, 2024 at 08:34 AM

PH

“ Our deepest condolences and prayers to the family. Dickens was an unique man. He always answered my calls or texts. He was one of the greatest man I grew up with in school. We used to party together, laugh and joke about a lot of things. I'm so heartbroken but I understand God makes no mistakes. Sleep in internal peace my brother. Love you dearly Patricia Floyd Hicks ❤️

Patricia Floyd Hicks - December 18, 2024 at 11:48 PM

LC

“ The memories that I have of Junebug will never fade. He was one of the top people in my life that was genuinely kind, caring, giving and family oriented. He rooted for everyone to win and he would give his last to help his family, friends and often strangers without expecting anything in return. His boys were his pride and joy and he had an eternal Love for (Denise Clagett. His family was extremely important to him and he did any and everything that he could to make sure that they knew that they were loved and that he had their back at all times. The bond that he shared with so many people will never be forgotten because he definitely set the bar showing us how to love and care for each other. No words can ever give you a glimpse of who he was but, If he was in your life you know that a person like he was is a rare Blessing . Rest Peacefully King, job well done. Missing you with tears flowing as I'm writing this. LUV YA! LaJuan or Mrs. Celey as you always called me. ❤️🙏

LaJuan A Celey - December 15, 2024 at 12:21 AM

KD

Beautiful memorial LaJuan. Someone just text me this link and simply sadden to receive this news.

Kevin Andre Dickens - December 18, 2024 at 09:58 AM

DJ

“ My heartfelt condolence to the family and friends. My heart is truly heavy, and tears keeping running down my face like a water sprinkler. Though words cannot heal the pain may the memories be a guiding light bringing comfort and strength. DICKENS you were a ray of sunshine, with that beautiful smile and suave walk. Your hugs and kind words will be forever instilled in me. I WILL LOVE YOU FOREVER AND ALWAYS (ALONG WITH CLAGGETT). YOUR SIS Denise Johnson rest in peace until we see one another again.

Denise Johnson - December 13, 2024 at 02:42 PM

LC

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

LaJuan A Celey - December 13, 2024 at 11:33 AM